To Whom it may Concern

I received this papers witch I didn't understand so I am writing letter on my behalf.

I lost my job in July of 2009, I had received my pension to help keep me going until September 2010, I didn't have anything left to send and keep the house going. So I had no choice but to default on the loan of the house.

in 2010 I took a full time job at Marymount Hospital / Cleveland Clinic. It doesn't pay much. I am 63 yrs old I have worked two jobs for 25 yrs. to keep what I had but when I lost my job. all I hoped for went down. I'll try to find a job making 14.00 an hour. But there was no luck so I took a job making less money I don't make 40,000 a year I make 22,000, a year.

and don't take much home for a pay. So I am looking for a place to live. So I am on medication and not in good health so what more do you want.
I am trying to get help but our government doesn't help poor people like me. I don't know what else to say but I tried to do my best.

Thank You
